

Who'd Be A Viking Woman?

ALL WOMEN: Hard work of course!

CHORUS *Who'd be a Viking woman?
These blokes get all the fun!
I'd like to go a-Viking,
Now that would be exciting,
But here at home a woman's work is never done!*

1 We milk the cows, we make the cheese,
We get the honey from the bees,
We grind the corn, we bake the bread,
We fan the fire when it looks dead,
We cut the meat to make a stew,
We mind the kids and grandma too!

CHORUS

2 We spin the wool, we weave the thread,
We dye it purple, blue and red,
We make the clothes and wash 'em too,
We even make the family shoes,
We harvest wheat, we make the hay,
We gather firewood every day.

CHORUS

3 We feed the geese, we gather eggs,
We salt the fish in wooden kegs,
We thresh the barley, brew the ale,
We sort the goods we have for sale,
We make the soap, we clean our combs,
We never rest our aching bones.
