

Please Don't Buy Me A...

Please don't buy me a handkerchief,
I've a dozen sets at home.
It would be such a big relief,
Coz I can't stand blowing my nose!

Please don't buy me a wooly scarf,
Granny made me one last year.
It would fit any cold giraffe,
But you won't find many round here.

I've got a pile of gifts I've been given before,
Some half-wrapped and put away in a drawer.
It's hard to tell you this, and I value the thought,
But I don't need any more!

Please don't buy me a stringy vest,
Not unless it's really huge.
It would do as a fishing net
And I'd catch a whopper or two!

Please don't buy me a pair of socks,
Even from a posh boutique.
I'm attached to the ones I've got,
Coz I've had them on for a week!

I've got a pile of gifts I've been given before,
Some half-wrapped and put away in a drawer.
It's hard to tell you this, and I value the thought,
But I don't need any more!

I've got a pile of gifts I've been given before,
Some half-wrapped and put away in a drawer.
It's hard to tell you this, and I value the thought,
But I don't need any more!