

Home learning Tasks

Complete one task per short term, to your best standard.

Due date for first task: Monday 9th October, 2023

Due date for second task: Monday 11th December, 2023

Write an article for a Mayan newspaper. Include topical stories set in the land of the ancient Mayan civilization. Photographs are optional ... 	Chocolate was one of many remarkable things Mayans developed. Create an advert to persuade fellow Mayans to try this new creation.	Create a myth in the form of a Mayan graphic novel. Don't forget to include Mayan gods and mythical creatures. You could base this on our reading so far! 	Make an information leaflet explaining aspects of the Mayan civilisation and culture. You could include sections on food, sport, religious rituals ...
Make a set of top trumps based on Mayan gods or animals. 	Make a Mayan settlement using computer software such as Mine Craft.	Research Mayan gods. Make a power point presentation or poster illustrating various gods, their special powers and symbols. 	Design a Mayan board game. Add facts, illustrations, a sense of jeopardy, and don't forget the counters!
Make a Mayan picture/scene using collage, watercolours or other media forms (photography, apps, pencil, pastel).	Build a model of a Mayan temple! Use lego, sugar cubes or whatever you like! It will need to fit through the classroom door though... 	Compose your own Mayan style music and perform it to the class.	Make some Mayan food. You could cook a meal, make some chocolate or perhaps a drink?
Create 5 maths word problems with a Mayan theme.	You have a £3,000 budget for 2 adults to visit the Mayan ruins. Plan your route, transport and excursions. Include maps, pictures, costings and reviews.	Make a set of dominoes using Mayan numbers and images. 	Devise your own version of the Mayan ball game (Pok-ta-pok), play it and record the rules.

